Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

The BSA is committed to equal employment opportunity and compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws that prohibit workplace discrimination and unlawful retaliation, such as those that prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding, or related medical condition), gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital or familial status, genetic information, citizenship status, protected activity (such as opposition to or reporting of prohibited discrimination or harassment), or any other status or classification protected by applicable federal, state, and/or local laws. This policy of equal employment opportunity applies to all aspects of the employment relationship, including without limitation advertising, recruiting, hiring, training, evaluation, promotion, transfer, work assignments, compensation, benefits, disciplinary action, termination, or any other term, condition, or privilege of employment.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE

The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing his obligation to God and, therefore, acknowledges the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward the religious training. The policy of the organization or institution in which the member is connected shall give definite attention to his religious life. Only persons willing to agree with this declaration of principle and the bylaws of the Boy Scouts of America shall be entitled to certificates of leadership. I am interested in being a Specialist or Intern for the Scoutreach Division of Erie Shores Council. I agree with the Religious Principle of Boy Scouts of America. I certify that the above statements are true. I have a valid driver's license, and my own vehicle for traveling to sites. I understand this is a position of youth leadership, and will do my best to set a positive example to the youth I serve. I am available for up to twenty hours a week, Monday through Friday, and for occasional weekend activities.
