

Saturday Morning Training for Outdoor Adventures

November 5, 2022
Camp Miakonda

Adult leaders in Cub Scouts, Scouts BSA, and Venturing are invited to participate in “continuing education” for their outdoor adventures.

Hosted by the Council Training Committee, in partnership with the NYLT Staff, these sessions will help new leaders gain skills and also help experienced leaders to develop skills to help teach to their Scouts.

Saturday, November 5, 2022, at Camp Miakonda

- 8:45 Check-in & Fellowship
- 9:00 General Session with Council Key 3
- 9:45 Session 2
 - Adult leaders in Cub Scouts will attend “Basic GPS for Cub Scouts”
 - Adult leaders in Scouts BSA and Venturing will attend “Knots & Lashings”
- 11:00 Session 3
 - Adult leaders in Cub Scouts will attend “Whittling Chip”
 - Adult leaders in Scouts BSA and Venturing will attend “Compass Orienteering”
- 12:00 Departure

This event will be located at:

Camp Miakonda
5600 W. Sylvania Avenue
Toledo, Ohio 43623
(park in the parking lot, then walk into camp)

Registration Details:

$-0- fee, but online pre-registration is requested.

This event is open to adult leaders in Cub Scouts, Scouts BSA, and Venturing.

To register, please visit: www.erieshorescouncil.org/training

Please note that no programming is planned for youth on this date. These sessions are designed exclusively for registered adult leaders in Cub Scout Packs, Scouts BSA Troops, and Venturing Crews.

Questions? Please contact:

Council Training Chair Lee Schultz training@erieshores.org

Council Program Director Alan Leopard alan.leopard@scouting.org